Presidents Message ...

Deborah Roberts
President 2008-2009

What a great Club Assembly we had last week! I've received some very positive feedback from the Avenues of Service Directors as well as our Club members. Everyone participated in the group discussions and expressed interest in actively contributing to our Club's success! Whether you're a new member or a more seasoned one, you'll find something in our Club to be excited about and involved in.

The following is an excerpt from The ABC's of Rotary by Clifford L. Dochterman, President of Rotary International 1992-93

"OPPORTUNITIES FOR FELLOWSHIP"

Most Rotarians are successful professional and business executives because they hear opportunities knock and take advantage of them. Once a week the opportunity for Rotary fellowship occurs at each club meeting, but not all members hear it knocking.

The weekly club meeting is a special privilege of Rotary membership. It provides the occasion to visit with fellow members, to meet visitors you have not known before, and to share your personal friendship with other members.

Rotary clubs which have a reputation of being "friendly clubs" usually follow a few simple steps:

- First, members are encouraged to sit in a different seat or at a different table each week.
- Second, Rotarians are urged to sit with a member they may not know as well as their long-time personal friends.
- Third, members invite new members or visitors to join their table just by saying: "Come join us, we have an empty chair at this table."
- Fourth, members share the conversation around the table rather than merely eating in silence or talking privately to the person next to them.
- Fifth, Rotarians make a special point of trying to get acquainted with all members of the club by seeking out those they may not know.

When Rotarians follow these five easy steps, an entirely new opportunity for fellowship knocks each week. Soon Rotarians realize that warm and personal friendship is the cornerstone of every great Rotary club."

Interesting... Although I sat at my usual table last week, the other "regulars" sat elsewhere because of the meeting's format. It was a terrific opportunity to chat with a completely different

Group fills packs with school items for needy students

By Rachel McGrath Correspondent

Ventura County Star, Saturday, August 16, 2008

For a growing number of children in Ventura County, all the usual necessities for the first day of the new school year are hard to come by.

"All families are budgeting to send their kids back to school, but it's becoming increasingly more difficult for parents to do that, especially if they are from a low-income family," said Lindsey Garner, a senior development associate with Many Mansions in Thousand Oaks.

This year, the nonprofit organization aims to fill 300 backpacks with school supplies for the children living in their affordable-housing units in Thousand Oaks and Simi Valley.

"It really helps the kids' self-confidence to turn up with new school supplies on the first day of school," she said.

For the first time this year, students at Lincoln Elementary School in Ventura, where half of the 250 students come from what's classified as a socioeconomically disadvantaged background, will be receiving backpacks and school supplies donated by the Rotary Club of Ventura.

"Generally, these kids have no place in their homes which could be called a "sanctuary," where they can keep their papers and schoolwork safe," said Lincoln Principal Lee Warner. "A backpack is going to be an extraordinary thing because it will be recognizable and like a briefcase for kids."

A group of volunteers from the Rotary Club spent the morning of Aug. 9 at an industrial storage unit in Ventura filling backpacks with crayons, pencils, erasers, calculators, protractors, rulers, paper and folders.

"It's great and I'm feeling good and we've had such an outpouring of support," said Ellyn Dembowski, who works as a real estate agent in Ventura.

Dembowski started the school backpack project at the Rotary

Club in 2004, and this year the club decided to commit to making it an annual event.

"It's nice to be able to give them something so that they'll be on an even keel with the rest of the kids on that first day," general contractor and Rotary Club member Dale Jaedtke said as he stacked folders into boxes.

The Rotary Club of Ventura donated $4,000 to the project and that, along with donations from individual Rotarians, meant Dembowski and her team were able to fill 400 backpacks, double what had been originally planned.

She said there seems to be a greater need than ever to give free school supplies to local children.

"I think it's due to the economy and the housing problem, because there are a lot of kids affected by foreclosures and people losing their homes," she said.

In addition to Lincoln Elementary School, students at other elementary schools in the Ventura Unified School District, including De Anza Middle School and Saticoy and Sheridan elementary schools, will receive backpacks.

Some of the backpacks will also be handed out by the Boys & Girls Club in Ventura.

"These children are very, very appreciative of anything people do for them, and they show it," said Boys & Girls Club CEO Diane Koranda.

The Rotary Club of Westlake Village says its members plan to fill 60 backpacks with school supplies at its Aug. 27 lunch meeting.

Sean Olgin of Thousand Oaks oversees the club's New Generations youth program and said the bags will be given to children nominated by Interface Children Family Services.

"Basically, we go out and do the shopping and fill the backpacks based on each child's needs," he said.

St. Jude's Catholic Church in Westlake Village also is collecting school supplies and school uniforms, which will be distributed to needy children through the Catholic Charities organizations in Oxnard, Moorpark, Ventura and Thousand Oaks, Care and Share in Simi Valley and the RAIN shelter in Ventura.

Jane McDade from the parish said it's something they've been doing for eight years. In 2007, the church put together 669 backpacks filled with school supplies and gave school uniforms to 32 children.

"This year, we are going to add School on Wheels to our program," she said, referring to a nonprofit organization that provides one-on-one tutoring for homeless children. "Everybody we talk to says there's more of a need this year."
